

PAULA SLIER

INTERNATIONAL JOURNALIST | KEYNOTE SPEAKER | INFORMATION WARFARE & MEDIA LITERACY SPECIALIST

Helping leaders, organisations and audiences navigate an age of AI, information warfare and declining trust.

For more than three decades, Paula Slir has reported from around the world, including from more than 25 conflict zones, covering war, political upheaval and humanitarian crises. Today, she translates those frontline experiences into engaging keynote presentations that help audiences understand how information shapes the way we think, make decisions and lead in an increasingly uncertain world. Her talks combine compelling storytelling with practical insights into information warfare, media literacy, leadership, resilience and decision-making.

SIGNATURE KEYNOTES

Clickbait, Chaos & Credibility – How to know what to believe in an age of AI.

From Boots on the Ground to Bots on the Screen – How warfare has moved from battlefields to our phones.

Behind Enemy Lines – Confessions of a Jewish war correspondent.

Why Smart People Believe False Things – The psychology behind misinformation and manipulation.

The Bullet I Didn't Dodge – A keynote on resilience, rebuilding and finding purpose after betrayal.

WHY PAULA?

- More than 30 years' international reporting experience.
- Reported from more than 25 conflict zones.
- Award-winning journalist and documentary producer.
- International keynote speaker and executive educator.
- Specialist in information warfare, media literacy and decision-making.

IDEAL AUDIENCES

- Leadership conferences
- Government
- Corporate events
- Financial services
- Technology & AI Universities
- Media organisations
- Wellness retreats

CONTACT

paula@newshoundmedia.com
www.paulaslier.com